

staying in town for college?

a new seminar for undergraduates

REGISTER NOW
www.villescas.org

september 10 & 11

this private seminar is for current undergraduates who want to apply their talents & be involved in the community throughout their academic careers wednesday & thursday 6-8 pm... $25 at the percolator (217 n. stanton)

topics include:

- engaging campus life through organizational involvement & leadership
- strategies for active learning & social networking with other el paso undergraduate/graduate students
- selecting classes, professors/mentors, & leaders in the community
- preparing for advanced studies through greater knowledge about the local
- investigating graduate studies & conducting longitudinal research in the regional community
- exploring how each student can impact the future of el paso through concurrent involvement with local organizations & initiatives for more information call 915.533.1337 or email joseph@villescas.org